

PRIVACY POLICY Rev. 04/24/2019

Our Commitment to Privacy

Executive Service Corps of Houston (ESCH) is committed to protecting the privacy of those who use this website or use related products and services.

The Information We Collect:

This site compiles conventional log files to monitor and assess activity including traffic and visits on the site. On some pages, you can make requests and register to receive material.

The Way We Use Information:

The information we collect is used to improve and enhance content and services of the website. This activity does not specifically identify any individual user and no names are collected. We do not use or disclose information about your individual visits to the website. Neither do we provide the information you give us on this website to outside companies without your written approval. At this time, no such information is being collected.

In the future, if the site does collect names and/or identifying personal information, the site visitor may contact ESCH as indicated below to review the information and make corrections.

We never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without also providing you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

How You Can Access Or Correct Your Information:

You can access all your personally identifiable information that we collect online and maintain by contacting ESCH by phone at 713-780-2208, by e-mail at esch@eschouston.org, or by mail at 7575 San Felipe St, Suite 235, Houston, TX 77063. All such communications will be conducted only with the individual concerned and identity verification will be required.

Our Commitment To Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect.
